All used up
And nowhere to go
Got a sad story to tell
But who wants to know?

It's written on the walls
You sing it in the halls
You're gonna have a ball
Who catches when you fall?

Don't look at me like that
Don't look at me at all

All used up
And nowhere to go
Got a sad story to tell
We all wanna know

It's written on the walls
You sing it in the halls
You're gonna have a blast
Who watches when you fall?

Can't look at me like that
Can't look at me at all
