

Down By Law "The One"

Visit "The One" on motolyrics.com

if I could be the one then you know I'd be the one knock down walls built up around me building blocks only I can see close my eyes
the dream begins
it's black and white
then you wake up again
my mind is blank for you draw on it what you will try the truth, you try my patience I draw on strength you'll never know how could you draw me?

I close my eyes
the dream begins
