She told me that I'm like a disease, when I'm
Out here on the street. she told me, "get away
From me, your grinning & shaking and showing
Your teeth." she told me, she don't need me.
There's a thousand ways to say no, she don't Want me. one too many grudges displayed.
Ex-brothers and ex-lovers, it's all the same no,
I can't play these games. no, I won't play your Games. you stabbed me in the back, I was
Fucked for months.
You all made me bleed.
