(feat. Max Bemis from Say Anything)

This is the way that I fall down
When your not home
This is the way I wander
Endlessly across the room

I'm always talking to myself
When your not home
To hear your heart it's so heavy
It sends me across the room

And all this talking to myself
Leads to moments of self doubt
And I'd write it all down

If I could feel you again
We'd make this right together
If I could see you again
Hunny it's now or never

I'm never hearing everything
When we are on the phone
And you are always asking
"Are you sure you were listening?"

You are only talking to yourself
When we are on the phone
And you never remember
All the calls you've been missing

If I could feel you again
We'd make this right together
If I could see you again
Hunny it's now or never

And it feels so numb
To be such a long way from ourselves
And it feels so numb
To be such a long way from ourselves

If I could feel you again

We'd make this right together
If I could see you again
Hunny it's now or never
