I'm back off my hiatus, hi haters.
Finally graduated to the league, hi majors.
Tryin' to stand next to the grades, hi neighbours.
I am on the grind all the time, hi skaters.
Smokin' til I'm brain fried, never had a break
time,
Time is the best medicine but I don't take mine.
Girls spin around and drop, popping to the base line.
Quit with all that attitude and we can have a great time.
All around the world, encyclopedia Britannica.
Cold than a mother fucker shout goes out to Canada.
I've perfected my poker face when looking in the camera
And playing for a full house, I can Danny Tanner ya.
Word to Hamilton, I'm about to lay the hammer down
Every night I see the crowd its like they rung a dinner bell.
Take a sip, hit the L, get on stage, give em hell.
Fuck saying I did it, I'm just trying to say I did it well.
I'm pulling up to lay it all down, give it all to you
If you didn't well you know now, what I do.
And I don't know what you've been told, and I
swear I see it through.
I'm pulling up to lay it all down, give it all to you.
Still Cam Hunter, nothing's changed since the 8th
cept every year my ass seems to get a pay raise.
Rose from the parking lot, circles to the main stage.
Eat my words, now, tell me how does great taste?
Never sit around and wait for shit to take place.
Imma make it happen for myself, so I stay late.
Hunting down the dollars, I am so true for my name sake.
Fans move their hands like they're trying to use a shake weight.
Like a weak link, bitch, I am off the chain.
Me and you, these two things are not the same.
GTFO, on a ho, this is not your lane.
Like a freestyle, you should get it off your brain.
I'm pulling up to lay it all down, give it all to you

If you didn't well you know now, what I do.
And I don't know what you've been told, and I
swear I see it through.
I'm pulling up to lay it all down, give it all to you.
They sayin' one's for the money, but this one
here's for the hell of it,
High five, everybody yelling it.
One's for the money, but this one here's for the
hell of it,
High five, everybody yelling it.
So one's for the money, but this one here's for
the hell of it,
High five, everybody yelling it.
One's for the money, but this one here's for the
hell of it,
High five, everybody yelling it.
So let it ride,
Let it ride x4
