Suffocating but I am still breathing
Getting closer now to my door
Lose my anger but I am still seeing
Enough to run away no more
You helped them, Figure me out,
But they wanted, so much
More
Why are we so low?
Inside out, I see through, my only loss
Inside now, fighting through, what I lost
Try to stay here while getting beaten down
Getting closer to the ground
Better listen while you still have a chance
A second one may escape you
And what he wanted, was to be the one
But we wanted, So Much
More
What have I lost?
Inside out, I see through my only loss
Inside now, Fighting through, what I lost
Used to listen
Once upon a time
Then you broke me
Now take it all back
I can see you
Still by the window
Where I found you
And where I left you
