Right now what are you thinking
Paddle with the spoon and you came up sinking
Too fast then it gets faster
Downward spin don't think you're gonna last
You're drowning in a pool so shallow
Eating at the soul until the body is hollow
Hazing so you won't see
You're nothing but a whore boy to the monkey
Faith in me
Decay
Shine on
Weakness voluntary sickness
Learn when you burn it's the wrong way to fix this Digression turns into obsession
Lesson number one hooks you in the profession
So you say you're not addicted
The lies in your eyes of the pain you've inflicted Feel it crushing through your veins
You're loosing yourself monkey on the brain
Consumer repair buyer beware
Sunk your fortune for it
Punk
Hate this solitary turmoil
Off in the corner like a snake in a coil
Shaking for what you're not taking
Say you're gonna quit but you know that you're faking it
Too cool who are you trying to fool
Gonna need help boy take you back to school
Clean you of what you can't see
Or just die trying to kiss the monkey
