Show the way; To follow You
Because I
Want to know; When I'll see you again
And
I am through; Wandering Hopelessly
Now and
I want to; I want to;
I had thought I wanted to be all I could be just for you
And I
See it coming as if it were the end of all that I am
To Overcome;
Show the way; to follow you
Because I
Want to know; If I'll see you again
To Travel through; if not hopelessly
Then I
Want to Come; I want to come;
I had thought I wanted to be all I could be just for you
And I
Feel it coming as if it were the end of all that I am
To Overcome;
To be the one, the end of every
Story known
We'll see the end together..
My god Is; Calling for me
Wait for me please Stay;
Reflection shows the way
It's washed away, washed away, washed away
It's washed away
They look away
They can't explain
Mirrors don't lie
Still they won't be changed
Never
Scream but yet they tell me
Quiet;
It's washed away;.
