These tides are the best I've known
Never knowing, where they come
Where they go

Drinking all the time
Never knowing, if I'm sick
Or if I'm feeling fine

Sometimes they drag me down below
But even then, I never let it show

Like a drunk at sea
Or a king without a home
Man overboard
Overthrown

Yeah, girls, I've sailed a few
I've faced the toughest storms alive
And I pulled through

Like pirates in modern times
Taking gold, booze and tattoos
And any friends, I find

Sometimes I feel like Davey Jones
But even then I never get so low

Like a drunk at sea
Or a king without a home
Man overboard
Overthrown

Like a drunk at sea
I'm drifting on my own
Man overboard
Overthrown

Like a drunk at sea
Or a king without a home
Man overboard
Overthrown

Like a drunk at sea
I'm drifting on my own
Man overboard
Overthrown

Like a drunk at sea
Or a king without a home
Man overboard
Overthrown
