An underground legend passed through the present a drop-out degenerate torn like a trash bin who broke down before the big-time production and all the money went just to build a dying monument

1%, 1%, it's the 1%
of you that I represent 1%, 1%, it's the 1%
of you that I don't resent now

An unknown messiah, fact or fiction dropped down from heaven condemned to this hell again nailed to the cross by big-time religion but no one remembers just how the story went

We all die alone

this makes me that 1%
