We are, we rule - we're here to take you down
There is nothing that can be compared to this We're here to teach you, we came to show you how We are, we rule and kneeling will be Your only hope, to escape from this
This is your deepest horror
And now as you still wonder why
Your downtime begins
You came to see how we are and what we are thinking

And now you know that you would have better not came here
There is no place here for you
We are, we rule and you would better escape
From this, this is your deepest horror
And now as you still wonder why
Your downtime begins
We came to let your downtime begin
We are downtime
