It seems as though things are changing
I'm not the child I used to be
My wings have grown and now it's time to fly
And build my life around what's changing

They're confined on a voyage
To leave behind a son they raised
I look for liberation
It's hard to find without a guide
They're confined on a voyage
To leave behind a son they raised
To see what's true in every single word
And find out how it takes to be a man

I'll live my life how they wanted
A life that's full of surprises
I'm ready to go now
And face my fears without you by my side
Far away from where I used to be
Love and hate is what I want to see
And have the feeling of what's right
In front of me
In front of me

They're confined on a voyage
To leave behind a son they raised
To see what's true in every single word
And find out how it takes to be a man
