I hit the road to fame again
But songs weren't coming out of me
I knew I had to get back
I was in way too big of a hole

I will need you there in my life
I will need you there by my side
I will need you there in my life

The road wasn't good to me
But I learned a lot of things
The smoke was blinding me
I could only sing the way I feel
I will need you there in my life
I will need you there
In the end
It's only you
Sing me a song from the grave
Sing me a song from the grave

I will need you there by my side
I will need you there in my life
I will need you there

In the end
It's only you

Darkness is calling for me
I'm standing in my way
If I could only hear it
I wouldn't be standing here today

Broken dreams all before me
These sounds are in my ear
Whispering how it should be
They are distant and not so clear

Darkness is calling for me
I'm distanding in my way
If I could only hear it
I'd still be standing here

Iâ€™m shedding crimson tears
Iâ€™m breaking all the glass
I need to find a reason
Put my feet on the path

I found a reason
I found a reason
I found a reason
Itâ€™s only you
