Feel like cryin' today, I feel like cryin' today
No one could stop me now
Just came out, yeah, it came out
Nothing to say

Just comes out every one
Just comes out every one
Just comes out when you're wrong
I wanna give in, yeah, give in and let it swallow me

So won't you clear my head for a while?
Can I lay my body down?
Cry now

This old heart's been through the mill
This old heart's been through the mill
It's so damn hard for me to feel
When I lay down, yeah, beside you
I feel something inside

So won't you clear my head for a while?
Can I lay my body down?
I need a place to rest my heart
Cry now

Give me strength for today
Give me strength for today
I will not talk it away just for a moment
It will burn through the clouds and shine down on me, yeah, yeah

So won't you clear my head for a while?
Can I lay my body down?
I need a place to rest my heart
Cry now

Feel like cryin' today
