I see my mom and dad's wedding pictures
Hanging in the hall
That picture of happiness tries to sell it
But it doesn't tell it all

It's been 22 years since they walked down the aisle
Now they seldom talk and I never see 'em smile
They're living their lives in the land of the broken hearted

My old man gave me a job right out of high school
Just like his old man did
It's a dead end street of barely making ends meet
That I just can't live with

Now we can hang around here
And wind up the same
Or kick it in gear girl
And outrun the pain

We're leavin' the land of the broken hearted
Letting our motors run
The sea of tears has finally parted
Baby our time has come

We're getting out now while we still have forever
For you and me girl it's now or never
We're leavin' the land of the broken hearted

It's a lottery ticket chance of getting out
And I never met a winner
No nothing ever changes around hear but the weather
And what they had for dinner

It's a chain of broken dreams
And we were born to break it
That bitter pill they're dealing
We are not gonna take it

We are leavin' the land of the broken hearted
Letting our motors run
The sea of tears has finally parted

Baby our time has come

We're getting out now while we still have forever
For you and me girl it's now or never
We're leavin' the land of the broken hearted

We're leavin' the land of the broken hearted
Baby we are leavin', just you and me
Yeah, we are leavin' the land, leavin' the land
Leavin' the land of the broken hearted

Leavin' the land, leavin' the land
Leavin' the land of the broken
Broken hearted
