One Night in New Orleans
On a super bowl Sunday
In a bar with a big screen TV
She was there with some girls
They were down from Montreal
And she walked right up to me

She said, "Voulez vous danse"
And she started to move
I said, "Baby I don't parlez vous"
She said, "Voulez vous touche"
Then she took me by, by her hand
And I knew that she wanted to dance

Ya c'est la vie, baby
Whatever you say
I'll do anything if you put it that way
'Voulez vous amour'
I found out what that means
One night in New Orleans

Looking in her eyes
I saw the French quarter
In a way I had never seen
Kisses in Binet's
Strawberry's and champagne
One night in New Orleans

She said, "Voulez vous danse"
And she started to move
I said, "Baby I don't parlez vous"
She said, "Voulez vous touche"
Then she took me by, by her hand
And I knew that she wanted to dance

Ya c'est la vie baby
Whatever you say
I'll do anything if you put it that way
'Voulez vous amour'
I found out what that means
One night in New Orleans

I said, "How do you say I love you"
She smiled and whipered
"Je t'aime ooo"
Although I never told her I loved her
That night in New Orleans I did

She said, "Voulez vous danse"
And she started to move
I said, "Baby I don't parlez vous"
She said, "Voulez vous touche"
Then she took me by, by her hand
And I knew that she wanted to dance

Ya c'est la vie baby
Whatever you say
I'll do anything if you put it that way
'Voulez vous amour'
I found out what that means
One night in New Orleans

'Voulez vous amour'
I found out what that means
One night in New Orleans

'Voulez vous amour'
