Well it used to be that you couldn't tell me anything
Just another young fool who thought he knew it all
I was runnin' hard and fast thinkin' I was invincible
Till I hit the wall, I hit the wall

And I need you now, like I needed you then
To help me get back up on my feet again
Only you and you alone
Can turn my stumbling blocks
Into stepping stones

Well you stood by me when everyone else had written me off
And you stayed with me for reasons I'll never know
Surrounded by troubled waters I was all but lost
You were my bridge across, my bridge across

And I need you now like I needed you then
To help me get back up on my feet again
Only you and you alone
Can turn my stumbling blocks
Into stepping stones

All the times I stumbled down
You lifted me up to higher ground

And I need you now like I needed you then
To help me get back up on my feet again
Only you and you alone
Can turn my stumbling blocks
Into stepping stones

Turn my stumbling blocks
Into stepping stones
Stepping stones, stepping stones
Stepping stones
