

Doyle Lawson And Quicksilver "Whatever Happened To Us"

Looking through this worn out book of pictures
Reliving all the love we once knew
Searching through the pages of my memories
Everywhere I look there's me and you

Oh, whatever happened to us
Somehow through the years, we've lost touch
Lately I've been missing you so much
Oh, whatever happened to us

I always thought we looked so good together
How did we come to drift so far apart
These tears I cry keep asking me one question
Why did we break each other's hearts

Lately I've been missing you so much
Oh, whatever happened to us
