When all the wrongs have all been turned to rights...
Then all we have to do is wait it out...
And when I lay down on my bed of nails...
I know I'll rest until I'm finally dead...

Spirit-Fury-Fire...
Spirit-Fury-Fire...

The crown you're wearing cannot stay the same,
Don't be surprised it's shivering...
You're disappearing, I'm afraid it's true,
Yeah, all your hate, well it get's brighter every day...

I think there's nothing left of me to fade...
I understand now that you feel the same...
The steam is blowing at me and I drown...
That's when I knew that they were never far...

Spirit-Fury-Fire...
Spirit-Fury-Fire...

The crown you're wearing cannot stay the same,
Don't be surprised it's shivering...
You're disappearing, I'm afraid it's true,
Yeah, all your hate, well it get's brighter every day...

Spirit-Fury-Fire... (x4)

I know I'll sleep just like an infant child...
Yeah, I can see it when I lie...
And all the voices in this dream I hear...
They'll all get quiet pretty soon...

The crown you're wearing cannot stay the same,
Don't be surprised it's shivering...
You're disappearing, I'm afraid it's true,
Yeah, all your hate, well it get's brighter every day...
