Centuries move away countries groove away
The universe stalls on all around action
People have people have people have
Just one Michael Jackson
Wind the history rewind the history
Unravel the mystery unravel the mystery
Fold it unfold it refold it
You would find one and just one
That great Michael Jackson
Pop, soul, R&B and joyous hip-hop
All genres sound heaven with that master pop
"Off the Wall," "Thriller," "Bad," and "HIStory
"Dangerous" broke all records bestowed the glory
Alas the calendar could not skip
June 25 that gave the hardest kick
The Master of Music rode the train
Running fast one way to the domain
He left behind such a vast legacy
Billions of fans falling into ecstasy
A charade of action and interaction
Can one of those be a Michael Jackson?
