I know the game, bro, I count the same dough
PI style, gators with the Kangol
I move on the floor, hit the towel, same flow 60 minutes on stage, spectacular show

Kurt on the turns, edged up with sideburns
We do the thing right, we do the thing tight
The press is there, we get you out the spotlight
You think you hot right, over like Cartwright

You can't even rhyme, I leave you when you start to write
Cash and run, yo, cash in son
How you gon' take me, I heard of you vaguely Strictly the master, you can't game me

We sport the Kangols with the flyest clothes
The legendary, the metaphor king with metaphor swing
Collect our checks and take the girls home
You know you rappers are lame, full time I'm runnin'
the game

We sport the Kangols with the flyest clothes
The legendary, the metaphor king with metaphor swing
Collect our checks and take the girls home
You know you rappers are lame, full time I'm runnin'
the game

Momentum I get 'em I spit 'em with venom
My cadences hit 'em, like his girl babysit him
You know the facts, clone stage put your acts on Gas up, you pump up with the Exxon

Girls get wet, spin around, break your neck
Like Crazy Legs, Adidas suits start to break and sweat
Come out retirement, fools come and place your bet
You just a gay non-kitten that I gotta pet

I'm climbin' up, role call, I ain't finished yet Speed is hype feed, offbeat you regret
Catch the breeze, stop and ease

Stop it please, now you phony kid you tryin' to jet

We sport the Kangols with the flyest clothes
The legendary, the metaphor king with metaphor swing
Collect our checks and take the girls home
You know you rappers are lame, full time I'm runnin'
the game

We sport the Kangols with the flyest clothes
The legendary, the metaphor king with metaphor swing
Collect our checks and take the girls home
You know you rappers are lame, full time I'm runnin'
the game

I set up roadblock, rock 'em sock 'em like a robot
Women touch theyself, grab they parts for Delf
Man you stay on the shelf, can a man flow?
Can a man go, right at the place

At nighttime, watch me glow, get on the field
Quarterback, watch me throw, watch me flow
Turn around, put up your names up, fire and flames up
Come and you came up, change the game up

Talk and walk, talk and hawk
Jock me now, jock me later, your DJ slide Kicked his mix down to the fader
Voicemail, hit your man on his pager

We sport the Kangols with the flyest clothes
The legendary, the metaphor king with metaphor swing
Collect our checks and take the girls home
You know you rappers are lame, full time I'm runnin'
the game

We sport the Kangols with the flyest clothes
The legendary, the metaphor king with metaphor swing
Collect our checks and take the girls home
You know you rappers are lame, full time I'm runnin'
the game
