Dr. Octagon, paramedic focus on the East
For priests my anesthetics
Prescribe a certain fertilizer
Homegrown computer wise on the microphone

Utilizing tracks inverted by animical
High typical force, space sex intercourse
You get lost, and memorize to the Enterprise
Scotty the Captain, Mr. Spock keeps rappin'

4212, the shit moves at warp speed
Dynamic seven, navigation of the coppers
Moving in crystals, operating light speed
I see the plants, they're growing

Blue flowers
Blue flowers

Cyber analog through virtual reality
Different colors of earth rocks in variety
Medical equal, with helmets on the space people
Galactic at eight, the verdict can't demonstrate

You be confused, and disobeying planet rules
Biochemistry, with stars for publicity
Mega sonic bass, with data chips in your face
Nuclear lend drums, that bang hard on dark tracks

Reacting reverb, concious spots on your nerve
I take a break like James Brown to the bridge Sailing, takes me away, to wherever I'm really going, shoobedowop
Up, up, and away, in my beautiful, balloon

Optical biofeedback, magnetic borders
X-Ray you see skeletons fly North for the next day
We give passes covered with dioxalyn gases
Return, here's George Jetson
Back with intriguing positive minerals

You enter the center search and raiding at random
With no condom, no rubbers will reach the testicles

And effect 'em, by animal means, I'm in your spectrum
As I walk through the garden of orange tomatoes, I see

Blue flowers
Blue flowers
Blue flowers
Blue flowers, yes
