Don't fucking touch me
You're drunk, you're drunk
Pick up your feet up from the ground

What's wrong with murdering this girl?
And I will go, I will go (oh)
Silence! so she can't hear me coming

Your neck is bruised,
And I'll drink all I'll need
This plan of mine is so perfect

No one will know
What to think of those two
They'll show you around

You'll speak the first in ten whole years

This light, is just light shining
Yeah, this moment is so mine
This moment is fucking mine
This moment is mine
