Me and my girl gotta get to heaven.
We'll get there on a 747.
But I'd be happy just as well if we ended up in hell
'Cause she has shown me hell before.
She has shown me hell before
And I kept coming back for more.
Yeah, I kept back for more.

Me and my girl got to stick together.
We've got the kind of love like the weather.
Well, I'll be shining all day long,
Even when the sun is gone,
'Cause she has shown me rain before.
She has shown me rain before
And I could use a little more.

I don't know why we do the things we do, the things we
do, we do.
I don't know why we do the things we do, the things we
do, we do.
But I can do a little more.
Yeah, I could use a little more.

Me and my girl we are perfect for each other.
I can be her baby and she can be my mother.
And I don't think it's all that bad when I gotta be her dad
'Cause I have met her dad before.
Yeah, I have met her dad before
And I know I can give her more.
Yeah, I know I can give her more.

Me and my girl gonna make it right.
We got the kind of love that can put up, up a fight
And I don't ever scream or shout even when she knocks me out
'Cause she has knocked me out before.
She has knocked me out before
And I kept giving up for more.
Yeah, I kept giving up for more.

I don't know why we do the things we do, the things we do, we do.

I don't know why we do the things we do, the things we do, we do.

No, I don't know why we do the things we do, the things we do, we do.

I don't know why we do the things we do, the things we do, we do.
