I'm sleeping under carpet in a closet full of bone
In a body of boiling water
I'm scratching on the surface, I'm blind as I can be
I am a trace, I am a gesture,
In the heavy heavy light...

They say that I'm a river, they say that I am one
Will I be the last to know?
So beyond the lines of mercy, I'm waiting for my turn
Someday my prince will come,
In the heavy heavy light...

The sea is within me and that's cause I said so
And that's cause I said so
In love with the word; am I sound? Am I right?
The sea is within me and that's cause I said so
In love with the word; am I sound? Am I right?
The sea is within me and that's cause I said so
In love with the word; am I sound? Am I right?
The sea is within me and that's cause I said so
Love, love

I wish I gave only love
Could feel it when I did
