Glaring is nice at the sun
If you stare well you might go blind
Feelings are fine when they're fun
If they're bad well you might just die

Hang up the phone there's still meat on the bone
Don't you know you got a lesson to learn?
I'm pulling you out of the blue
You can take a clue and begin with the ABCs

ABC ABC

Eating's no good if you choke on your food
So you chew it slow
Sleeping's the best if you rest
If you don't then you're in the dark

Hang up the phone there's still meat on the bone
Don't you know you got a lesson to learn?
I'm pulling you out of the blue
You can take a clue and begin with the ABCs

Robins and whales
Tying dog's tails
The streets can talk so
You should listen
'Cause tonight you might be on your own

Robins and whales
Tying dog's tails
The streets can talk so
You should listen
'Cause tonight you might be on your own
Yeah tonight you might be all alone

If you don't know anything
It's alright if you don't think so
'Cause dying's like hanging around
At a funeral that no one goes to

Hang up the phone there's still meat on the bone
Don't you know you got a lesson to learn?

I'm pulling you out of the blue
You can take a clue and begin with the ABCs

ABC ABC

Robins and whales
Tying dog's tails
The streets can talk so
You should listen
'Cause tonight you might be on your own

Yeah robins and whales
Tying dog's tails
The streets can talk so
You should listen
'Cause tonight you might be on your own
Yeah tonight you might be all alone
