Yeah, Dr. Di, sea, zee, zee, zee, zee, zee, zee, zoom

I know this R&B singer that live across the street from Central Park

Her shades stay open at night

I see her up late with some Lurch guy sniffin' coke

And they both take speed outside with 'em

And fill they pockets up with dope

And press the elevator then come down like paparazzi's with a camera

I follow you around, I see you shop a little bit downtown

You buy your turtles from Myrtle

The cologne y'all pick out is Cavalli Roberto

Peek a boo, I see you

The panties your girl bought is purple

I see you on 14th Street in the cut, sippin' Henny and

Cuervo

Walkin' out, stumblin' drunk in Club Petrol

I followed you, I saw what you did

I'm out here

I followed you, I saw what you did

I'm out here

Now this was a movie star with big bumps on his face
With a tranny, with a fur coat, they was in a rented car
They got out and walked in the club with a spinnin' bar
I seen him with Grey Goose from afar

Dancin' on the table with a G-string like a spinnin' star

You are under a power scope and a binocular

Since when men started dancin' as stars?

Givin' chicks with Mohawks a massage

Dancin' to shoes worn by 'What's Happenin?'

You stand with designer glasses lookin' like Raj

Comin' out of a house club

Kissin' a man with a wig on that look real bugged

I followed you, I saw what you did

I saw everything you did
I followed you, I saw what you did
I saw everything you did

See this rapper right here? I'm not close up on ya
But I see you're iced out, payin' for Another watch you bought on 59th Street
That was Zirconia with skin blemishes goin to the tannin' salon
I see they out to tone ya

You walk two blocks to pay on your prepaid phone ya
With a card that say Music Express 'cause the record company own ya
Sponsorship, you stopped up in Cross Colors to get free clothes
Fly and real dip

You 23rd Street bootleg, you don't buy real legit
I see you phony with it, plastic alligators on your shirt
What you workin' with?

I followed you, I saw what you did
I saw everything you did
I followed you, I saw what you did
I saw everything you did

I followed you, saw you when you got in the cab
Remember, you was on 14th Street?
You had on the blue shirt, you had a black coat
Plus you had on some lil' purple glasses
That said 'Chanel' on the side
Don't you remember? Your shoes were brown
