In 1990 I took a little trip
A-checkin' out the singles scene to find me someone hip & on the very day my divorce was finalized
I headed for a singles bar, & boy, was I surprised

CHORUS:

These gals today, they ain't what we expected
They ain't as shining hot as they was a while ago
These gals today know how to be aggressive & much more macho than any guy we know

I saw a pretty thing, she was sittin' at the bar
So I asked to take her home & we went out to my car
But I opened up the door to my beat-up Chevrolet & she said "I drive a Porsche" & she turned & walked away

(chorus)

Then I went to dance & I met me someone sweet
We went back to her condo for to make the night complete
In the after-troll when I made some future plans
She said "Cool it boy, this is just a one-night stand"

(chorus)

Yeah I ran to the bars & I ran to the dances
& I ran for the places where the single ladies go I've seen more gals than you can shake a stick at Each one, boss, see her, never one before

Well, the end of the story, I never would've guessed These modern single women only made me such a mess
Now I did the most bizarre thing I did in all my life I took a deep breath (gasp, gasp) & I went back to my wife

(chorus)

(repeat verse 4)

You know, the last date I had, she picked out the movie, she picked out the restaurant, she picked out the beer...guess who picked up the check!
...& fade
