In the heart of California where the angels always camp
& a frog named Dan'el Webster was the legendary champ

In Calaveras County you can hear all nature sing
& a man may be a prince there, but every jumpin'
frog's a king

CHORUS:

I'm a jumpin' frog in Calaveras County
I can jump a mile & if you saw me you would swear
That I'm a jumpin' frog in Calaveras County, California
It's springtime; won't you meet me at the fair?

From out of hibernation, come join the celebration Sunshine, open up the door & let spring fever in
When these good vibrations permeate amphibiations
The jubilee of jumpin' frogs is ready to begin

(chorus)

I'm comin' to California; Calaveras, I wanna warn ya Ain't a fly is safe when I come hoppin' in & there ain't no toads allowed, & I'm a-croakin' right out loud
Green is the color of my true love's skin

(chorus x2)

Ah it's springtime; won't you meet me at the fair?
