(steve walwyn)

I've been working every day tryin' to make a penny or two
I've been breaking my back workin' the whole week through
But I wouldn't mind if I had to work the weekend too

(I tell you why)
I'm just a fool for you honey
Nobody else but you
You make a fool of me honey
Nobody does it like you
You've got to look me in the eye
I'm just a fool for you

You make me weak in the knees
I shiver from my top to my toes
I've got an aching head
Tears runnin' down my nose
You've got a hold of me honey
Ain't that the way it goes

(I tell you why)
I'm just a fool for you honey
Nobody else but you
You make a fool of me honey
Nobody does it like you
You've got to look me in the eye
I'm just a fool for you

- guitar solo -

Well I know that you think it's a game
Don't you think it's a shame
I get a shiver through all my frame
Every time you call my name

Well I went to the doctor, he told me straight to my face
I went to the doctor, he said 'you ain't got no case'
He wouldn't give me no prescription

He said 'you've come to the wrong place'

(I tell you why)
I'm just a fool for you honey
Nobody else but you
You make a fool of me honey
Nobody does it like you
You've got to look me in the eye
I'm just a fool for you

I'm just a fool for you honey
Nobody else but you
You make a fool of me honey
Nobody does it like you
You've got to look me in the eye
I'm just a fool for you

- guitar outro -
