Here I go
I'm sippin' on Bacardi from the night before
There she goes
She's laughin' with a guy she's never met before
She wants Maybach limousines, breakfast at Tiffany's
I know I've seen her on the front page of TMZ
A twenty says she follows me outside the door

Shwayze Verse:
She like me for all the wrong reasons
Her mind change like the four seasons
Trip to Vegas just for the weekend
Jet to Tao Beach to the Palm no sleepin'
She goin' to stay if she say she leavin'
So babe, when you leavin'?
(Don't leave)
Mind games in a short time frame
Stop bein' lame and take off your tang top
(Right now)
We aint' gotta rush though
Aint in love but I gotta crush yo
Expensive taste but I came up soon
Won't buy sex but I'll pay for the room
Flash cars, diamond rings, drivin' fast in the diamond
lane
From the covers of my sheets to the covers of the magazines

Here I go
I'm sippin' on Bacardi from the night before
There she goes
She's laughin' with a guy she's never met before
She wants Maybach limousines, breakfast at Tiffany's
A twenty says she follows me outside the door

Louie Verse:
One shot with a side a lime
Body shots, who's in line?
Next up, no Patron
Don Julio is a friend of mine
Three more, I'm up to no good

Crashing parties in Malibu
Turn it up all night long
They love to sing along
She's another material girl
Diamonds, caviar, and pearls
Trust us, we've seen them all
Island hopping around the world
Not me, I don't mind
I just think we're two of a kind
Taking pictures all night long
She loves to sing along

Here I go
I'm sippin' on Bacardi from the night before
There she goes
She's laughin' with a guy she's never met before
She wants Maybach limousines, breakfast at Tiffany's
A twenty says she follows me outside the door

Lex Verse:
She a fan cause my song is classic
She into yoga so gymnastic
Got cash but she's so plastic
But that's what keeps me laughin'
She's a model
She's a singer
She's an actress
Cause she's attractive
Her moms a cougar I got catnip
Summer in Ibiza, let's take that trip
Walk past paparazzi for close-ups
Chateau Marmont for mimosas
Yeah
She just want to be seen
With the new, heart throb on E!
Her friends want to party at the lake house
Jet ski, sun tan, and make out
Pull cake out, it's my turn
She going from red carpets to carpet burns

Here I go
I'm sippin' on Bacardi from the night before
There she goes
She's laughin' with a guy she's never met before
She wants; Maybach limousines, breakfast at Tiffany's
A twenty says she follows me outside the door
