Somebody changed the lock on my door, yeh now
And my key, it won't be fitting that lock no more

I've been standing on my little front porch all night long, mmmmm
Yeh now and I know something is definitely going on wrong

You know that the lights is dim, the shades are way down low Yes now and I knocked and knocked until my poor fists got sore

I've been just standing on my front porch all night long, yeh now
And I know something is definitely going on wrong

Yeh now and I, I know you that changed the lock on my door
Yeh lord my key, it won't be fitting that lock no more Yeh now now now

You done changed the lock lord key of mine my won't fit no more
They said you know my key, it won't be fitting that lock no more
