I see your eyes and I feel a lot of sensuality

Your deep blue eyes give me such a kind of filling ecstasy.

So I lay me down on a blanket made of purple phantasy

You've touched me by your heart
you did it from the start

And all because of sensuality.

How dreary was my life before your time !

A time of dissipation

I lived apart from life's reality.

But now you're here

I feel the good vibration

It's more than physical on top of sensuality.

I

I can see

every move you make is sensuality

Why is it me you are giving all your love and sympathy?

Time

all the time

I will be with you until eternity

I feel your energy just deep inside of me your energy of sensuality.
