Don't know why it took so long
The ties that tied me to the ground have gone
And nothing seems to stop me now,
I've got wings. I can fly
I can look you in the eye
It was me that made the ties
It was me that set them free

It ?s only that it seemed impossible
Unreasonable, unfeasible
That I became the victim
And you became the liar
And I became the tin soldier
That jumped into the fire

Happy I am

Big things don't come easily
We stumble when we first begin to walk
We set our course, we find our way
Not easily but hard
And suddenly we're free
To some place in this life we're meant to be

Happy I am

Big things don't come easily
We stumble when we first begin to walk
We set our course, we find our way
Not easily but hard
And suddenly we're free
To places in this life we're meant to be

Happy I am
