Youâ€™re coming up and you climb up there
You attend to get a little bit restless
And bring a palm â€™cause you feel like rain
And they spill it all over your sunset

Donâ€™t stop
You make my world go â€™round
Itâ€™s spinning on your thong
And you travelled out to it

In the storm, we wrote
In the mouth of the danger, they tryna contain it
Twist me and Iâ€™m tired of you
What took over later down on the fender lay low

Come on up, come on over the hill
Come on up, go where we deal with your nightmares
You keep it out now, weâ€™re on the road
Think all the damage we do by the morning

So donâ€™t stop
The world keeps going along
Itâ€™s spinning on your thigh
Youâ€™re the tender mental kind of side, here we go

In the storm, we wrote
In the mouth of the danger, they tryna contain it
Twist me and Iâ€™m tired of you
What took over later down on the fender lay low

And what took over later down on the fender lay low
And what took over later down on the fender lay low

Coming from the high and whole of it all
Level out the up and down as we go
Thereâ€™s an under under every.
Years we grow as bigamy thatâ€™s wrong
That shit breaks what we do
And youâ€™re still grounded

Standinâ€™ in the storm, we wrote

In the mouth of the danger, they tryna contain it
Twist me and youâ€™re tired of you
What took over later down on the fender lay low

In the storm, we wrote
In the mouth of the danger, they tryna contain it
Twist me and Iâ€™m tired of you
What took over later down on the fender lay low

And what took over later down on the fender lay low
Down on the fender lay low
But down on the fender lay low
