You're like all of your New York City friends
All those lit up, windows and doormen
But you're true to, true to your old town, old town
friends
And we'll wait 'round here until that day comes when

You need somewhere to run run run
Somewhere to run run run
Somewhere to run run run
Somewhere to run

Late at night, the night isn't always dark enough
And there's static clinging onto your dancing shoes
But you're right to, right to keep chasing those traces of
What you never asked for, but I know you know I do

I know somewhere to run run run
Somewhere to run run run
Somewhere to run run run
Somewhere to run

I know somewhere to run run run
Somewhere to run run run
Somewhere to run run run
Somewhere to run

Gables are focused and lit through a spell
In a whirlwind of everything
Glowing bright, bright in a dazzling starless night
Know that you've been

True, to, true to your old town, old town friends
Now you stay true, true to your old town, old town
friends
And we'll wait 'round here until that day comes when

You need somewhere to run run run
Somewhere to run run run
Somewhere to run run run
Somewhere to run

You need somewhere to run run run
Somewhere to run run run
Somewhere to run run run
Somewhere to run

Somewhere to run
Somewhere...
Somewhere...
Somewhere to run
Somewhere to run
