We come from....

Over the dark horizon sky,
With twisted tales of sacrifice
To imagine of believe all the of the free

Hunting all day an endless cry,
The things I've seen I can't deny
Sinners, saints all mixed in one,
The dawn of time has begun

Why can't you see what they're doing to me?
Is it fair that I'm dying in vain....?

Once in a land of sacrifice,
Now only valleys of demise
Shadows of a pale blue moonlight,
Ride the waves of entity

Why can't you see what they're doing to thee?
Is it fair that you all die in vain....?

Ride with the steel and the power of the sword
Stand up and fight now and forever more
Rise through the night sky with daylight desire
To be free....
There must be....

Black Fire!

Through the day and through the night
With dragons heart the warrior strikes

This is the day that they'll be known as my enemy

Why can't you see what they're doing to mock
What we believe in we rise through the pain....

Ride with the steel and the power of the sword
Stand up and fight now and forever more
Rise through the night sky with daylight desire
To be free....

There must be....

Black Fire!

We come from distant lands we travel so far
Can you see the bleeding scar?
The prizes of life we fail to win
Cause we doubt the power within

Woah....

Woah....

Why can't you see what they're doing to
What we believe in we rise through the pain....

Ride with the steel and the power of the sword
Stand up and fight now and forever more
Rise through the night sky with daylight desire
To be free....
There must be....

Black Fire!

BLACK FIRE!!!
