With the dawning clarity a calm and vast serenity i see into this pale infinity I'm drifting

Spirit of the sea
streams reached down to me visions in the dream
spared me

With the fury of a storm A racing, darkened majesty sent me into a sunken destiny
azure divinity

Spirit of the sea
streams reached down to me
visions in the dream
spared me

Solo: MÃ¶rck

Solo: Lindskog

Spirit of the sea
Harken unto me
the tempest made me
what must be
