[Drake]

She be jumpin up and down tryna fit that ass in Took her half an hour just to get that belt to fasten All she wanna talk about is partyin and fashion Dont know where shes going I do not plan on asking, At all.

Cus her spirit is free

And she, lets nobody else in except for me

If her basement is locked, then i swear she would agree

Im the only one she loves

Theres no copies of the key, Homie Thats A Guarantee.

[Drake - Verse 2] (New)

Dont forget your Fendi purse that you put all your cash in kinda hard to concentrate when the cameras are flashin other dudes would suffocate her I dont want to gas in dont know where shes going and I do not plan on asking

at all, Ive never been the type, felt alike my connection with n-ggas that wanna fight over women, thats not right theres too many in the World homie you can have your pick but I swear that ones my girl

I swear that ones my girl

[End]
