Don't you have a man?
(Don't you got a man?)
Why are you trying to be my girl?
(Yeah)
I can't believe
Don't you have a man?
(Don't you got a man?)
It's alright with me my girl
We can do anything
Why you over there looking at me?
Why your man standing right beside ya?
The temporary happiness he might provide ya
But you know and I know
That nobody gon' do you like me
Tryin to say your like a goalie in line(?)
I say I know that I feel her but slowly I'm kinda like
I don't really wanna
Hit this girl
And so she want the chap stick
Like Napolian Dynamite
Well, Ima give it to you hunny bunches
You feel it all under your ribs like some tummy crunches
All my other girls all up on some Suddle shit
They don't wanna cut it
They wanna wrap it and cuddle with Consequences keep weighing me down
So whenever she think I'm serious
I'm playing around
It gets deeper and colder
And funny thing is
I'm writing this in my head
And she asleep on my shoulder
Don't you have a man?
(Don't you got a man?)
Why are you trying to be my girl?
(yeah)
I cant believe
Don't you have a man?
(Don't you got a man?)
It's alright with me my girl

We can do anything
Look, we had a little thing
A winter time fling
Used to get back to my man (my street team?)
But that was then
You know,
Some hush hush
I ain't ever really see a future in us
Plus your man still there
Let's be fair
You'll do the same things to me
My feelings never did go past
Some late night smash
I don't wanna take the place of he
Late nights 85 south
On my way to the crib
And somebody got a song for me
I already know what you about
Cause I been the other man
And you not gunna try me
With your silly little plan
It's my bad
Should have chose a woman
But now I'm in a mix
With this lil' girl playing
I'm saying
You need to do what you do
I'm not trying to take it
Any further with you
Don't you have a man?
Why are you trying to be my girl?
I cant believe
Don't you have a man?
It's alright with me my girl
We can do anything
I met her at the bar
Sippin' on patrone and
Now it's been three years off and on Cause the same page, we are really
Often on
Cause when im in, she out
And when she in, I'm gone
We lost contact like falshon laun
But regained it when she was building
A house and home with this new cat
Saying that he doing her right
It just proves that,
She dont know
What to do with her life
Cause if so,
She wouldnt have to change her strategy

Snd wouldnt need me to recharge her
Batteries..
One minute she mad at me
Next minute it's all good
And I'm in her body like grays anatonmy
I dont understand why
God sent me to you
And I can't try to justify the fowl shit
We do
All I know is that each time I'm
Stickin you, I think to myself
Damn
If only honey
Don't you have a man?
(Don't you got a man?)
Why you trying to be my girl?
(Yeah, yeah)
I cant believe
Don't you have a man?
(Don't you got a man?)
It's alright with me my girl
We can do anything
Don't you have a man?
(Don't you got a man..)
Why are you trying to be my girl?
(baby)
I cant believe..
Don't you have a man?
(Don't you got a man?)
It's alright with me my girl
We can do anything
