i tell her, i tell her we not just any guys i bet they go for a reason no need to empathize i tell patron truths and you beleive em all i can see it in ya eyes i take you down like, down like i can put you on inside a town flight and even have a driver pick you up girl what that sound like, sound like i gets big big money all this money i dont even know
