[Drake - Verse 1ne] Hey there, pretty girl You know, exactly what you got and I don't, blame you at all You can't resist it Especially when the lights so bright and the money so right And it's comin in every single night She don't wanna leaveeee-eee-eee-eeE-EEE-EEE-EEE She just stuck in... [Chorus] Houstantavegas (ay) Houstantavegas (ay) Houstantavegas (ay)
Houstanta, she just stuck in Houstantavegas (ay) Houstantavegas (ay) Houstantavegas (ay) Houstantavegas And she dance, to this song and she dance, to this song And it goes, "Hey now now, watch her go doooooown..." Oohh-ohhh-ohh... [Drake - Verse 2wo] She doesn't ever worry If she wants it, she'll get it on her own She knows, there's more to life and she's scared, of ending up alone Throw your ones up in the air... Throw your ones up in the air for her... Throw your ones up in the air... 'cause the ones you throw will get her out of.. [Chorus] [Drake - Rap Verse] We all got dreams and we all star reachin All start peakin, all-star weekend One hotel room, and all y'all sleepin Housekeeping knock to see if all y'all decent Young girls envy the life y'all leadin Never satisfied wit a nice calm evening You be at the games lookin right, all season Butchu always with me, on the night y'all leavin Ass low, ass low, I always request you You go get fucked up and we just show up at your rescue Carry you inside, get you some water and undress you I give you my all and the next morning you'll forget who... ...or why, or how, or when Tonight is prol'ly 'bout to happen all over again And she live in a mindset that I could never move to Until you find yourself, it's impossible to lose you Uh... because I never had you... Although I would be glad to... I probably go and tattoo... yo' name on my heart I swear, I start, to think, that I'm going crazy... {*echoes*} ... Throw your ones up in the air...
Throw your ones up in the air for her... Throw your ones up in the air... 'cause the ones you throw will get her out of.. [Chorus]
