We both wake up, staring at the sky Don't remember how we got here but we don't wonder why
Right now we living life like there's no way we can die
But we bout to do our thing they couldn't stop us if they try Keep the weapon for the haters if they try to blow our high How the fuck would they stop us if we by each other's side
We were meant to be together we get inside
How the hell would they kill us when we're feeling so alive

Ooh girl I know you want a G
It's kinda hard not to notice me
Cause I'm right here where you wanna be

I can take you where you wanna go, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh.

Baby I can give what you want and everything you need Put us both in a position where we can both succeed
And if it takes a sacrifice I promise I will bleed All the blessings that I get I promise you'll receive fuck them other niggas all they do is deceive Let me take away your pain, my job is to relieve

Ooh girl I know you want a G
It's kinda hard not to notice me
Cause I'm right here where you wanna be
I can take you where you wanna go, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh,
oh, oh, oh.
