[Drake]

The clock that you've been watching has been stopping he makes you wait what kind of man does that to a girl he loves if you just give tonight to me I promise my hands are safe there safe
just in a minute, take your clothes off we about to start no false alarm even though the traffic downtown don't show no mercy ohhh, think about the last time I came through had some more that I give for you and I only f- you like that on your birthday although baby I just landed out to get my bags in all I need's an address and I'm on my way don't fall asleep

yes I see you calling me promise it's worth waiting for because I'm on my way

out to get my bags in
don't fall asleep
promise it's worth waiting for
