[Drake - Verse 1]

Took it from signing my own yearbook to booked for the year
got a condo and I couldn't even cook for you here took it from bs checks to T S sex to people wondering if its the phantom he gets next who knows, its the rabbit its buzzing for real here the rapper everybody got a cousin he's feeling and its kinda ironic you fit with them cos they wasn't really around when it wasn't appealing now its (?) diamonds an perfume spraying four star rooms are the worst you stay in lyrics courtesy of (I love the (?) with the rims to match) what girl that wasn't me who's verse you saying sh-t I would never tell you nothing like that them other n-ggas you spend on, cuff em like that see the difference with me I don't forget the past and you gave me nothing so I'm gonna give you nothing right back, likeâ€¦

[Chorus]

[Colin Munroe]

Where were you when Iâ€¦

[Drake]

Would'a loved the person you trying to be now its funny I'm the dude you trying to see now

[Colin Munroe]

Where were you when Iâ€¦

[Drake]

..was past out, cash drought, assed out I know you here now but

[Colin Munroe]

Where were you when I wasâ€¦

[Drake - Verse 2]

Young, dumb, looking in the mirror trying to figure out who Im gonna be this year
its funny you managed to be around for the present all puns intended your funds are mended if I take back the cheddar its better for both us no debts owed we can both let go before this I could never get a call from ya now all texts finish XOXO but this aint hollywood squares to me sweetie I'm far from a hollywood charity and I bet when you talking to your friends you messing with other dudes that you probably compare to me but if its not Drake and one of us wrong you forget my birthday and know none of my songs you coulda told me before your heart wasn't in it, fine but try to get a start at the finish line ah,

[Chorus]
