Uh,wassup? Real nigga doing real stuff. Get alot of money you could never get enough. And you know the new shit sound so tough. So and so just walked in ... so what? I don't really vibe alot these niggas,I ain't really into giving one more chance,girl I already tried with alot of these niggas,Fuck that. That team don't real,what's that? That can't be from here. That can be what the believe in is the best shit of the year. That's that fake shit. That's that fake shit. That's that top row of veneer. Just when they getting impatient is when I make a world premiere. Ah,damn,word, award shows coming? Make sure you spell the shit right. Make sure to give me all the credit I deserve. Make sure the good stuff still in that sprite. they watch us make the shit into song. You ain't livin' that boy,stop stealin' that life. Anything can happen when I do see ya,guess it all depends how I feel on that night. Okay. Live my life in hotels,bitch better have my room right. If they kill me bury me a legend,bitch better have my tomb right. Ahh,this is perfect for the women that I loved before. I love em all, I just love me more.
