Wore a suit today
I'm almost ready
On the news they say
The dow is steady
Got a picture inside my mind
Of a place and time

Took a mornin' train
Opened up the paper
Tryin' to find the name
Of a total stranger
Now I'm readin between the lines
Lookin' for a sign

Out there
There's someone just as crazy
Someone who is waiting for somebody like me
Somewhere out there
There's someone just as scared
Searchin' for that someone who is just as out there
As me
As me

Wish I had a map
To find my direction
So I don't lose track
And miss my connection
I still don't know who you are
But I've come so far

Out there
There's someone just as crazy
Someone who is waiting for somebody like me
Somewhere out there
There's someone just as scared
Searchin' for that someone who is just as out there

I can hardly wait

Out there
There's someone just as crazy

Someone who is waiting for somebody like me
Somewhere out there
There's someone just as scared
Searchin' for that someone who is just as out there
As me
As me
As me
As me
(As me)
As me
(As me)
As me
(As me)
As me
(As me)
As me
(As me)
As me
(As me)
As me
(As me)
As me
(As me)
