[M: Beretta, Ceretti/L: Beretta]

[Artan:]

Take a look in my soul tonight: it's an empty space you'll find

Finally now I understand the last words Oracle said

[Bridge:]

What's the meaning of it all? À f Â f Ã, Â ð

Why to find a brother lost

Just to lose him once again?

[Chorus:]

Tell me why I have to pay such a price for victory?

In the night along with Slayn, it has died a part of me

In the end he sacrificed everything to be redeemed

And I'm standing here alone, lonely, as I've never been

Is it all just a cruel joke? Are we all destiny's pawns?

Victory has a bitter taste... losing more than you have gained

[Bridge:]

Many questions in my mind, À f Â f Ã, Â ð

But I just can't see the light

Maybe I will never do... À f Â f Ã, Â ð

[Chorus]

[King Randall:]

Now it's time to stop the pain

For his death was not in vain

Even for a time so short

You've been with him after all

And to save us it was

His brotherly love
