This life is my story
Gotta tell them don't ignore me
I've drove these roads
& walked these streets
A thousand times...
& as the days go by
I always try to be who I am
This is me
To be who I am... to be who I am

I'm here to change what you're thinking in an instant, so sit down and
Listen
This is my story what I got to tell my own experience this is what I taught
My self
Memories fade but never are they gone that's why I try to turn all my life
Into song keep the good ones and throw out the bad
Live from your mistakes and then never look back Change what you're doing but never change yourself remain who you are and Search for good health do what makes you happy what ever good

Or bad but most importantly never idolize your dad
You got to sing and dance and be free, listen to your heart and enjoy what
You see I got to stay me never change for nothing.
Love life don't except no judgement.

This life is my story
It's me
Gotta tell them don't ignore me
I've drove these roads
& walked these streets
A thousand times...
& as the days go by
To be who I am... to be who I am

I respect all the people who change me

I appreciate the love and support they help make me
The man who I am so proud to be 16 and my moms like 83

But the wisdom of a wizard I will show you the way To these lost young kids who can't find a place, to be who they want, or who
They are
I know how exactly how they feel I still have the scars
Keep your mind open because when your times shortened the feelings of Regret sting like a fine hornet Friends come and go and few remain but the ones that do never throw away
Remember what your mom said about the girls make them feel like the most Beautiful in the world
And if you come across a thing we call love do everything you can man all
Of the above

This life is my story
A thousand times...

You see.
I just go to stay me.
But I try and try always listen to my mom being honest with my self getting Lost in time
Keeping time from rhymes because it soothes the soul it's so bone to think
That you run the show
But you don't you code because if you think that life's easy you don't Always get what you want nothings free see
To be me is all that all I ever asked iv'e been taught too much to be Thrown in the trash
So don't even ask you won't get to me I just need to be who I was sent to Be
I could change the world if you just give me a chance
I wanna stand for what's right I wanna see some heads

This life is my story

I've drove these roads
A thousand times...
To be who I am... to be who I am
