You had it you lost it
What more you want from me
Don't remember, can't stand it
Why won't you let it be

And I know, I see,
You're still a part of me
The drama things over,
So why don't you set me free

Cause I don't love you,
I can't even remember you
I don't love you like I used to
I don't love you,
I can't even believe it's true
I don't love you like I used to
Love you like I used to do

The summer, the winter
Beat down like hammers on
The shelter, the shatter
My heart's an empty hanger
And I know, I see
You're still a part of me
But can give,
Can take before it's too late
I know it's too late

Cause I don't love you,
I can't even remember you
I don't love you like I used to
I don't love you,
Some things you have to choose
I don't love you like I used to

She wants it, she needs it
She don't understand
I'm already miles away
She wants it, she needs it
She don't understand
I'm already gone

And this is wasted time,
Wasted words

Cause I don't love you,
I can't remember you
I don't love you like I used to
I don't love you,
I can't even believe it's true
I don't love you like I used to
And I don't love you,
Some things you have to choose
I can't love you like I used to
I don't love you,
I can't even believe it's true
Love you like I used to do
